Ten days of mountains, glaciers, pristine lakes, national parks and unforgettable experiences beckon on this rail tour to Canada. The excitement begins with an overnight journey aboard Amtrak's Empire Builder. As the train pulls into the station in Whitefish, MT, the first peaks of the Canadian Rockies come into view. We spend a full day taking in the awe-inspiring scenes of Glacier National Park in Montana before crossing the border into Canada. A brief stop in Cranbrook allows us to see one of the largest collections of vintage train cars in North America, and we are also treated to the insurmountable beauty of Kootenay National Park before arriving in Banff. Our time in Banff brings visits to Lake Louise, the Columbia Icefield and the Yoho Valley, as well as a ride to the top of Sulphur Mountain aboard the Banff Gondola. As if the adventures in the Rockies were not enough, the tour wraps up with even more thrills in Calgary at the Calgary Stampede. Whether it is the serenity of nature or tradition and urban culture you seek, this rail vacation is your ticket to the best of both worlds.

The final expedition of the day takes us into the beautifully scenic Yoho Valley. The valley is a must-see for anyone visiting Yoho National Park, with its picturesque views of gnarly rock formations, towering mountains, lush forests and more. We travel along Yoho Valley Road and see famed sites, such as the Spiral Tunnels - a marvel of engineering that made it possible for trains to pass through the steep grade of Kicking Horse Pass. We also gaze upon Cathedral Mountain and the beautiful Emerald Lake. Take them all in before returning to Banff, where the evening is at leisure. Overnight Banff, AB. (B)

Day 6 - Banff Sightseeing

Spend the day enjoying the undeniable splendor of downtown Banff and Banff National Park at your own pace. You may want to take a dip in Banff Upper Hot Springs. Later this afternoon, head to the Banff Gondola for a ride above the treetops to the summit of Sulphur Mountain. The ride to the top takes less than 10 minutes, and upon arrival, you have time to explore the Banff Interpretive Center, to soak in views of six mountain ranges from the rooftop deck, to watch a film in the Banff Theater and to explore on foot by crossing the Sulphur Mountain Boardwalk to reach Sanson's Peak. For dinner, we dine on top of the Canadian Rockies in the Sky Bistro. Overnight Banff, AB. (B, D)

Watch as the dramatic scenery of Alberta changes from mountains to city as we drive towards Calgary today. Past the hills, we cross over Scott Lake Hill before arriving on flatter land, where the cities come into view and small rock formations signify the last remnants of the Canadian Rockies.
